THIS HALF TO BE RETAINED AND READ CAREFULLY BY THE CANDIDATE

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

1. Each candidate shall satisfy the Presiding Officer as to his personal identity, and any person detected in attempting to personate a candidate shall be reported to the Department. The Presiding Officer is authorized to refuse the application of any candidate who presents himself at any centre other than that nearest his usual place of residence, unless the candidate's explanation of his course in so presenting himself is in every way satisfactory to the Presiding Officer.

In the case of a candidate who has already submitted his application, if he desires to write one or more of his papers at a centre other than that nearest his school or his place of residence, he shall make application through his Principal to the Department for permission to do so.

2. Candidates shall be in their allotted places before the hour appointed for the commencement of each examination. If a candidate be not present till after the appointed time, he shall not be allowed any additional time. No candidate shall be permitted, on any pretence whatever, to enter the room after the expiration of an hour from the commencement of the examination. The Presiding Officer is authorized to refuse admission even within the hour, if the candidate's explanation is in any sense unsatisfactory, or if he has reason to suspect collusion between the newly admitted candidate and other candidates.

3. Candidates shall take with them into the examination room, when presenting themselves for examination in each paper, the exact amount of the examination fee prescribed, namely $1.00, and shall place it on their desks for collection as instructed by the Presiding Officer. The maximum fee for the Lower School examination is $5.00, for the Middle School examination $10.00, and for the Upper School examination $15.00.

4. A candidate shall not leave the room within one hour after the distribution of the question papers in any subject; and if he leave after that period, he shall not be permitted to return during the examination in such subject.

5. Every candidate shall conduct himself in strict accordance with the instructions.

(1) He shall not take into the room or have in or on his desk any book, notes, paper or anything from which he may derive assistance.

(2) He shall not talk to another candidate; he shall not give or receive assistance of any kind whatever. Should he violate these instructions his examination will be cancelled and he may be debarred from presenting himself at any Departmental examination for two years.

Should the Presiding Officer obtain clear evidence of the violation of these instructions at the time of its occurrence, he shall cause the candidate concerned to leave the room at once; he shall strike his name from the list of candidates; and he shall not permit him to return to the room during the remaining part of the examination. If, however, the evidence be not complete at the time, or be obtained after the close of the examination, the Presiding Officer shall report the case to the Department.

6. A candidate shall not use any paper or book other than that provided. He shall write the name of the subject of the examination very distinctly at the top of his book. He shall not, however, write his name or any distinguishing mark or symbol on his book nor shall he tear any paper from his book or insert therein any matter not pertinent to the examination.

7. Every candidate shall write his answers and full solutions on the ruled sides of the leaves of his examination book or books (if more than one be needed); he shall use the unruled sides in preparing the answers in rough where necessary. He shall fold his examination book (or books) once across, place it in the envelope provided by the Presiding Officer, seal the envelope, write on the outside of the envelope the subject of the examination only, and, on the slip provided, his name in full (surname preceding), and then securely fasten the slip to the envelope, as instructed by the Presiding Officer. Each candidate shall hand in all the answer books he has used.

8. Candidates are also reminded that the Presiding Officer is not allowed to make any explanation or other statement regarding the probable meaning of any question or to give any advice as to what questions should be answered by the candidates or how any question should be answered.

Should an error appear to have been made in any question, no attention shall be drawn to it during the time of the examination by either the Presiding Officer or any of the candidates. Candidates may, however, at the end of the examination period submit the matter to the Presiding Officer, who, if he consider it necessary, will report on the matter to the Department at the close of the examination.

9. In case of the illness of any candidate affecting his examination, he shall request the Presiding Officer to report full particulars to the Department immediately at the close of the examination. This report shall be accompanied by a medical certificate stating precisely the nature of the illness, and its time and duration. Other occurrences interfering with a candidate's examination shall be reported at the same time. Certificates received or circumstances reported after this date will not be considered.

10. In the case of failure in any paper, the candidate may have his answer paper re-read on making an appeal and paying the fee of $1.00 per paper up to a maximum of $5.00. The fee will be returned if the appeal is sustained. Appeals must be submitted not later than October 10th. Candidates should consult their teachers as to the advisability of entering an appeal, especially in the case of a paper that has already been re-read. Candidates making appeals shall state where they wrote and the papers on which they appeal. Principals sending in appeals in behalf of candidates shall make each appeal on a separate sheet of paper. All appeals shall be addressed to the Deputy Minister of Education.
